

Barret W.S. Lane

Barret W.S. Lane is a public law attorney and a state-certified Emergency Manager in Minneapolis Minnesota. He graduated cum laude from St. Olaf College in Northfield Minnesota in 1985 and graduated cum laude from the University of Minnesota School of Law in 1990. He practiced in the areas of insurance defense and insurance coverage litigation until his election to the Minneapolis City Council in 1999. He served as Minority Leader and was a Policy Fellow at the University of Minnesota Humphrey Institute Policy Forum. He was re-elected to the Council in 2001. He became a Community Emergency Response Team volunteer and instructor. He served as a FEMA Community Relations Officer following Hurricane Ivan in 2004. He retired from the Council at the end of 2005 in order to return to the private sector. In addition to his law practice he is Chief Manager of Lane Consulting LLC an emergency management and planning consulting firm.