

Susan Allan

Susan Allan, MD, JD, MPH has been State Public Health Director for Oregon since March 2006. Prior to that she was the local public health director in Arlington Virginia for 17 years where she had extensive experience with emergency planning and emergency response at the local state and national level. She holds degrees in law and medicine from Harvard and an MPH from Johns Hopkins. Dr. Allan is Board Certified in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine and is a fellow in the American College of Preventive Medicine. She has been on several study committees of the Institute of Medicine including "Who Will Keep the Public Health? Educating Public Health Professionals for the 21st Century" and the recently-convened Committee on Training Physicians for Public Health Careers. Currently she is member of ASTHO's committees on Preparedness Policy and on Infectious Diseases/Pandemic Influenza.