

William J. Lehman

Bill Lehman is the Deputy Assistant Director for Facilities and Security for the Administrative Office of the United States Courts (AO). He also serves as the Chief, Judiciary Emergency Preparedness Office. He retired from the United States Army after 26 years of service in various legal and senior-level administrative management positions. In his 15 years with the judiciary, he has served in a variety of positions primarily associated with facilities and security. His primary additional duty has been as the coordinator of the Judiciary Emergency Response Team at the AO where he has directed the Team in over 34 disaster-related incidents affecting court operations throughout the United States. In addition, he serves as the manager of the Judiciary Emergency Preparedness Program which provides guidance and assistance in the development of Continuity of Operations Plans (COOP) and Occupant Emergency Plans (OEP).

Bill has an undergraduate degree from the United States Military Academy, a Master's Degree in Business Administration and a law degree.

O:\Office of Facilities and Security\BIO.Lehman.wpd