

Alan Melnick

Alan Melnick MD, MPH is the Health Officer for Clackamas County Oregon population 360000 and Associate Professor and Director of Research for the Department of Family Medicine at Oregon Health & Science University. Dr. Melnick is also an Associate Professor in the Department of Public Health and Preventive Medicine and the Department of Medical Informatics and Clinical Epidemiology at Oregon Health Science University. In addition Dr. Melnick is Director of the Joint Family Medicine/Preventive Medicine Residency at Oregon Health & Science University. His research interests include community-based participatory research geographic information system applications in public health and public health ethics. Since 1991 Dr. Melnick has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Oregon Conference of Local Health Officials at present Vice-Chair and is currently on the Board of the National Association of County and City Health Officials (NACCHO) and the National Board of Public Health Examiners. Dr. Melnick is a 1993-94 Scholar in the National Public Health Leadership Institute past Chair of its alumni association the Public Health Leadership Society (PHLS) and a member of the PHLS Council. As a member of the PHLS Ethics Work group he has participated in the development and dissemination of the Public Health Code of Ethics.