

Richard Murray

Richard Murray has been a federal criminal prosecutor working in the western half of Michigan for 21 years. In 2002 he was assigned to the District's anti-terrorism unit where he is responsible for outreach in the areas of bioterrorism and cyberterrorism. In 2003 he worked with a group of state and federal law enforcement and public health officials to deliver statewide training about the differing perspectives of law enforcement and public health during an incident of possible bioterrorism.

Graduated from University of Chicago (1969) and University of Chicago Law School (1976).

Private practice 1976-1979. H

Houghton County Prosecuting Attorney 1979-1984.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Western District of Michigan 1984-present.